NOTICE.—

We hereby notify the public that, from and after this date, we employ no agents for the sale of Gregory's Dyspeptic Mixture.

Neither are there any interested parties with us. We are the inventors, sole proprietors, and only manufacturers of the GENUINE ARTICLE, and our individual signatures accompany each bottle—and all orders and remittances must be made to Drs. W. W. & R. E. GREGORY, at Charlotte, N. C.

In assuming the entire charge of this invaluable remedy, we present it to you in a new dress, and have reduced the price to $1.50 per bottle, to bring it within the reach of all. In the pamphlet which accompanies each bottle will be seen the certificates of the most distinguished physicians, judges and divines, in the State, and we only ask for it a trial, that dyspeptics may be convinced of its curative virtues.

A liberal discount to the trade.

CHARLOTTE.

R. P. WARING, Editor.

Tuesday, November, 9, 1869.

We copy from the Democrat this morning, an article on the A. T. & O. Railroad, as confirmatory of the views expressed by us in our Monday morning's issue, and respectfully request that it may be re-read and carefully considered.

From the Richmond Dispatch.

DEATH OF A PHYSICIAN—UNUSUAL SCENES.—Dr. Lawrence R. Waring, for the last twenty years a practitioner of medicine in this city, died yesterday morning at 1 o'clock. He was a native of King William county, and a graduate of the Richmond Medical College. His life has been a rather remarkable one, and its lesson may not be lost on the community. Commencing the practice of medicine with ample means of his own, he was able to devote his attention almost exclusively to the poor, and the greater portion of his labor was performed without remuneration or expectation of it. As time went on his practice extended to all classes of the community; but the old habit of free attendance had grown so that it was a hard matter ever to get a bill made out from him. When the war closed, his property had become worthless, and his income was scant, but this made no change in the man. Content with the necessaries of life, and having none of its luxuries, he seemed all the more wholly devoted to those who had never had wealth, or, like himself, had lost all. He was essentially the friend of the friendless. His daily visiting list was rarely without a hundred names on it, and four hours was the amount of sleep that he allowed himself out of the twenty-four.

He had been unwell for some weeks with disease of the heart, though confined to his room for only three or four days past, and on Thursday said to a friend that he would die very soon. On Friday morning he rose from the bed, and in a moment more fell to the floor dead.

Yesterday morning as soon as the news of his death became general, his old patients commenced flocking to the little office on Franklin street, where the deceased had apartments. The stream of people was so great that a policeman was posted at the door to regulate their movements. While the inner room was filled with weeping women and sad-looking men, there would be a crowd of as many as fifty outside waiting for admission—a touching tribute to the memory of an utterly unselfish man, who, of his forty-five years, had given twenty to teaching the lesson that charity and selfsacrifice form the true value of life.

A SAD LITTLE STORY.—Yesterday morning the stentorian voice of the marshal of the police court sung out "Maggie Barde—abandoned child," and the eyes of all turned towards the pen, expecting to see a fallen sister, young in years, but dead old in crime, dead to decency and peddled out in vice. But curiosity seekers were disappointed, for a pretty little eight year old tripped out from the "pen" with the thieves, street-walkers, vagrants and regular drunkards, and seemed so strangely out of place. She said her mother died two months ago, and that her father was dead and sisters too, but that she had lived with a blacksmith and his wife until yesterday, and that they told her to go to the station-house, and the poor little creature, alone in the world, with no right hand but her own, no stout heart but the little one that beat in her tiny breast, started to find the station and get a home.

Poor little creature, her little feet soon gave out and her brave little heart broke down, and sobbing and crying, she sat down on the pavement and sobbed herself to sleep.—There she lay cunningly cuddled up in her rags and loneliness, dreaming of the mother she had lost, the home turned out of, and the home she expected to find. Finally a policeman woke her up and took her to the station, where warm coffee and a good bed were given the young homeless one. The case of the child was laid over to this morning, and she remained in the courtroom all day.

St. Louis Democrat, Oct. 27.

In the case of Paul vs. the State of Virginia the Supreme Court on Monday rendered a decision that State corporations, such as insurance companies, are not citizens, but creations of the State, subject to restrictions that are not imposed upon citizens. Mr. Paul, who is the agent of several insurance companies incorporated outside of Virginia, is by this decision compelled to furnish bonds for a faithful performance by his companies of their agreements before he can secure policies for them in Virginia.

For the Times.

The XIX Century.

EDITOR OF THE TIMES.—I have been a constant reader of this new candidate for public favor, since its first publication and I can conscientiously say that it deserves the support of the Southern people. I know that you do not pollute your paper with compliments to the trash of Mayne Reid, the slanderer of the Harpers and the bestiality of Mrs. Stowe. It is more grateful to you to praise home productions worthy of praise than to play the sycophant to Yankee publications. I therefore seek through your columns to call attention to this meritorious magazine published in Charleston, S. C., price $3.50 per annum.

The November number contains nineteen articles, all readable, some highly instructive and entertaining.

The reading matter is pure. There is no sensational claptraps, no disguised infidelity, no pandering to sensual tastes and no lowering of the Southern standard in taste, sentiment and principles.

It is a source of mortification to the writer of this to observe that some Southern papers, which have gone into ecstacies over the puerilities of Bonner's Ledger and the indecencies of the Yankee picturals, have neglected the XIX Century or noticed it but coldly. It is hard to say whether this argues a lack of Southernism or a lack of taste. But it does seem to me that a Southern editor ought to feel a peculiar gratification in commending so charming a periodical as the XIX Century.

TAR HEEL.

Correspondence of Baltimore Gazette.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4, 1869.—There is much comment here in all circles upon the indifference with which the Administration treats the recent expose of Butterfield's connection with the Gould-Corbin "corner" in New York. People ask, with good reason, why the Sub-Treasurer, accused of such grave charges, is permitted to hold on to his position for weeks after the developments of the damning facts of that affair. Uncharitable persons will shortly suspect that there are reasons not at all creditable to the Government for this loose way of treating a serious matter.

Some of the quid nuncs are trying to get up an excitement about Cuban matters by spreading a report that the Government has decided to interfere in behalf of the insurgents, and to that end is secretly fitting out a large number of iron-clads for a descent upon the Spanish flotilla in West-Indian waters. The fact that a double turret iron-clad was put into commission yesterday, in Philadelphia, is about all the basis upon which a story so warlike can be founded. No one here in the Cuban interest could be made to believe for a moment that the Administration has any idea of working up to a policy more active than has hitherto characterized its actions upon this complication.

It seems the leaves of the California chappara are gathered in great quantities upon the coast, and packed in bales and shipped to China, whence, after being dried and prepared by some process unknown, it is returned to San Francisco properly put up in packages, and branded and sold as a superior quality of tea. No doubt this tea, which is said to closely resemble the best black, reaches this market—in fact, is sold in all parts of the country. Latterly there have been in different quarters several mysterious cases of sickness after drinking so-called tea, and in Chicago two fatal cases. Our shrubs, besides the chapparal (which is not poisonous, but very debilitating and nauseating), are no doubt employed in this nefarious trade, and it is not likely the swindlers are particular avoiding those of a destructive character. Congress would do well to enact a general law punishing the adulteration and the imitation of such necessary and universally used articles as tea, with severity, and providing for the detection of such dangerous rascalities.

The following obituary notice recently appeared in a Spanish journal: "This morning the jeweller. Siebald Illmaga, was summoned away from his shop to another and a better world. The undersigned, his widow will weep upon his tomb, as will also his two daughters, Hilda and Emma, the former of whom is married and the latter open to an offer. The funeral will take place to-morrow. His disconsolate widow, Verónique Illmaga. P. S.—This bereavement will not interrupt our business, which will be carried on as usual, only place of business will be removed from No. 3 Tessi da Teinturies to No. 4 Rue de Missionaire, as our grasping landlord has raised our rent."

From the Charlotte Democrat.

A. Tenn. & O. Railroad.

We have heard the rumor several times repeated recently, that the Road bed, &c., from this city to Statesville, had been sold by the President of the Road to certain parties, or that arrangements are in progress for doing so. We think their is good foundation for the rumor.

The State has recently issued to the Road $2,000,000 in State Bonds!

The Company holds $20,000 of City of Charlotte Bonds, and altho' the legality of those Bonds is denied, we think it is a matter requiring the immediate attention of our City authorities whether they will permit the transfer of said Bonds to be made as part of the property of the Road, without a protest or legal action.

We have not sufficient authority to say to whom the Road has been or is to be sold, but we know that propositions have been made and considered.

The important question now is, if the Road is sold is their any probability of its ever being put in running order from here to Statesville? We fear not. And if the road is not rebuilt, what account is the mortgage which the State holds for the issue of $2,000,000 in Bonds? Ought not Gov. Holden to take steps to protect the State's interest?

This article is not intended to assail the parties to the transaction, for we must have more information before being justified in that course.—But as a public journalist, as a citizen and as a tax-payer, it is our duty to allude to the matter and direct the attention of the people here and elsewhere to it.

City, County and State tax-payers have funds invested in the Road and rights to protect as well as the private Stockholders. The business men of Charlotte and Statesville and the farmers along the line of the Road are particularly interested.

While on the subject, we will repeat a remark we made a few weeks ago, viz: that work on the Road ought to have been commenced long ago, for the Company had considerable funds in hand, (independent of the State appropriation,) sufficient to put the Road in running order half way to Statesville. [We make this assertion notwithstanding the late published letter of the President of the Road.] For that reason, and also for the reason that the Legislature had authorized a loan to the Road of $2,000,000 in State Bonds, we opposed last Spring a subscription to the work on the part of the City of Charlotte as entirely unnecessary. We are now more than satisfied that we did right in opposing a City subscription, and our citizens did exactly right in voting it down, because it was not necessary to secure the building of the Road to Statesville; and further, because the President had available means without a City subscription.

A Western paper speaks of a man who "died without the aid of a physician." Such instances of death are very rare.

It is stated that an air-line railroad from St. Louis to Louisville will be built at once.

Sixty dead bodies, victims of the Stonewall disaster, have been found in the river below the wreck.

What is the difference between a farmer and a seamstress? One gathers what he sows, the other sews what she gathers.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The death of the philanthropist, George Peabody creates a profound sensation. Nearly all the morning papers have obituary articles. The Times says, "The news of Mr. Peabody's death will be received with no common sorrow on both sides of the Atlantic. The sentiment of regret will not be a mere passing tribute of gratitude to a munificent benefactor. Mr. Peabody, through a long life accumulated manifold titles to be lamented. He was an ardent patriot, and was loved abroad as much as at home. He was a New Englander, who, when the South was bowed down to the dust stepped forward and claimed a right to succor her.

"He was no courtier, yet he was honored by sovereigns and princes; he was profuse in his charity, which pauperized nobody; he was a philanthropist who was liked as well as honored. There was no hinghard or narrow about his philanthropy; he simply did whatever good came in his way."

Impaired Digestion.

All the organs of the body are, so to speak, the pensioners of the stomach. In that living laboratory is prepared the nourishment required to sustain them, and by the vessels and ducts connected with the digestive apparatus, that nourishment is conveyed to every part of the system. Upon the quality and quantity of this element of life, and upon the manner in what it is distributed and apportioned, physical health mainly depends, and as the mind inevitably sympathizes with the body, the vigor of the one is absolutely necessary to the well-being of the other.

It is because HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS accomplishes this double object that it enjoys a reputation as a preventive and curative never heretofore attained by any medicinal preparation. But its direct beneficial operation upon the weak or disordered stomach is not its sole recommendation. It is the most comprehensive of all known remedies. It tones, strengthens and regulates the discharging as well as the assimilating organs; gently moving the bowels, promoting healthful evaporation through the pores, rousing the inert liver from its torpor, and inducing harmonious and natural action in the whole animal machinery. This benign result is not produced by any of the reactionary drugs which are used so lavishly in the old school practice, founded by Paracelsus; but by mild, safe and agreeable vegetable agents intermixed with a pure and mellow stimulant which diffuses their influence through the system and renders their sanitary properties active and effective.

What the Druggists Say.

RUSHSYLVANIA, O., Aug. 14, 1867.

Gents—I have been dealing in proprietary medicines for the last four ten years, and have never before found a preparation that would equal your "Pain Killer." It not only sells very rapidly, but gives the most perfect satisfaction in every case that has come to my knowledge.

In my practice I very seldom prescribe patent medicine, but, having entire confidence in your "Pain Killer," and knowing that it possesses valuable medical properties, I freely use it in my daily practice. It is the most standard medicine I have for sale, and many families in this vicinity would as soon think of being out of BEEF or BREAD as without a bottle of Pain Killer in the house.

Yours, very truly,
ISAAC A. DORAN, M. D.

C. P. Benson & Co., of Charlottesville, Va., write—Your Pain Killer is decidedly the most popular proprietary medicine sold in this State.

CAROLINA TIMES.

CHARLOTTE.

R. H. ALDRICH, Local Editor.

Tuesday, November, 9, 1869.

☞ Boots and Shoes of all kinds at the Lowest prices at H. & B. Emanuel.

FOUND.—We are gratified to state that the Police have succeeded in recovering a portion of the articles, recently stolen from the residence of W. J. Yates, Esq.

CATHOLIC FAIR.—We are informed that the Catholic Ladies are preparing for a Fair and Festival, to come off on the 7th of next month. It is scarcely necessary for us to express the opinion that in taste and an elaborate preparation, it will rival any ever held in this city. It is the first attempt that the members of this Church have ever made; indeed, the first and only call they have made for assistance in this community, and we therefore bespeak for them a generous and liberal patronage.

☞ Dress Goods in endless variety, at H. & B. Emanuel's

☞ Go to H. & B. Emanuel's to buy blankets.

We were round at Butler's on yesterday to see for ourselves. We always gave him credit for taste, but his present display surpassed our most sanguine expectations. He has a great variety of new style jewelry, watches, pins, setts, &c., but his fancy articles are elegant and must be seen to be appreciated. One toilet sett with musical box attached is not only unique, but very elegant.—Clocks, marble vases and bouquet holders of the most exquisite pattern form a part of his stock.

Butler's establishment is far ahead of any similar concern we have seen in this State, and will well repay a visit whether you wish to buy or not.

☞ Flannels of all kinds, at H. & B. Emanuel's.

☞ Ladies' Cloaks and Shawls at H. & B. Emanuel's.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.—The rooms engaged for Jefferson Davis at the St. Charles Hotel were yesterday afternoon taken possession of by him, and those of his friends who happened at the moment of his entry to be in the Rotunda had an opportunity of shaking him by the hand and renewing their profession of friendship.

In personal appearance the ex Confederate President, who was in the ordinary citizen's suit of sables, looks perhaps thinner than when he last visited the city, though his figures still retains the straight and erect appearance which always characterized him. He was received very quietly, though with evidently the deepest respect by those whom he encountered, and one visitor to the hotel, upon Mr. Davis' name being inscribed upon the register, stooped and kissed it with the greatest fervor. It is understood that he will remain here until his residence in Mississippi, which will not long be postponed.

[New Orleans Times.

☞ Ladies Nubias and Breakfast Shawls at H. & B. Emanuel's.

A PROPHET.—A private letter received in Washington from a prominent Government official in New York contains a prediction that before the holidays a crash will occur in Wall street which will equal in its disastrous consequences the effects of the recent Fisk-Gould gold conspiracy. The writer further says values generally have a downward tendency, and thinks that specie payment may be reached without difficulty before the 1st of July next.

Emily Jane Kane has escaped from Mormandom. She was converted to the faith in Scotland, and arrived at Salt Lake City last August. As she stepped ont of the wagon a saint of 60 accosted her with a smile and asked her to become his fourth wife. She declined with thanks, and sold her spare clothes to escape from the place.

The debt statement for October shows a further reduction of over sixty four millions since the 1st of March. The actual outstanding debt of the country at the present time is $2,649,654,744; but, as the amount in the Treasury is $188,526,755. the net indebteduess is only $2,461'131,189.

SPLENDID LAND FOR SALE.

On TUESDAY the 7th day of December next, at noon, at the Court House in Charlotte, I will sell a tract of land, lying one mile east of the city of Charlotte, containing 156½ acres, one half of which is under cultivation, and the rest is heavily timbered.—This is really a tract of first-rate land, the soil is good, adapted to corn, cotton and tobacco, and the timber alone, being so near the city, is of great value. Three large tobacco barns are on the premises. It is perhaps, the most valuable tract that will be offered near the city for years.

TERMS: A credit of 12 months with note and security. Title reserved until money is paid. Call at my residence to be shown the premises for Anthracite or Bituminous coal, have been in successful operation for the last ten years, and have proved to be the best Fire-place Heaters manufactured and put in operation. They are getting to be generally used, often in the place of furnaces, for heating the lower and upper rooms in dwellings and offices. Two or three Stoves heating the largest dwellings, and besides, are quite ORNAMENTAL and ILLUMINATING, having all the beauty and cheerfulness of an open grate fire, but are more ECONOMICAL, CLEANER, and RADIATING A LARGER AMOUNT OF HEAT. We can refer to thousands of families who have them in use.

PATENT BALTIMORE PARLOR HEATERS

We manufacture our own COOKING STOVES, and we guarantee them to be equal to any sold for baking and cooking. We have Stoves to take in long wood and with large ovens, and are superior Stoves for baking. We are getting out some new patterns of Cooking Stoves, that will burn Bituminous coal, hard coal, or wood. They will have a beautiful finish, and will stand among the No. 1 Cook Stoves. Our Cooking Stoves are Baltimore made, and we guarantee the plates. Our Cooking Ranges are pronounced the best and cheapest in the market.—Baking of all kinds can be done in our Ranges as quickly and equally as well as in a Brick oven. We will manufacture S. B. SEXTON'S new patent Hot-Air Furnaces, warranted to burn from 30 to 70 hours with once filling.

Thankful to our friends and the public for their past favors, we solicit a continuance of their patronage.
